Weather Forecast.

For North Carolina—Partly cloudy Sunday and Monday; probably showers Sunday, viarable winds.

Secretary Wilson had to do some seeking but it turns out that he did not have to go to England to see Johnny Hyde.

A South Carolina rifle team is going to shoot at Sea Girt, as we learn from the News and Courier. Wonder if they can hit it?

Has the proposition to separate the races on the suburban and city cars been consigned to the grave of oblivion? To express it very mildly, the existing situation is exceedingly distasteful to the white people.

The Japanese plenipotentiaries express a preference that the peace negotiations he conducted in English. There is one good old English word which we hope all of them can agree upon to head the protocol—"Peace."

One of President Roosevelt's favorite expressions used to be "Delighted." Under the burdens of official life and scandals enough to make any administration sick, it is a pity that a naturally bouyant feeling President has to quit being delighted.

When the charge was made that there was a leak in the cotton statistics of the Agricultural Department, Secretary Wilson declared that such a thing was impossible. He now realizes that some of his statisticians knew more about the impossible than he did.

Secretary Wilson wants to hold his job as head of the Agricultural Department just to show that he can run it better in the future. President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association, is of the opinion that a driver who never has been able to manage the horses ought to get down off the box.

Says the Raleigh Post: "It is said that Luther Burbank has produced a golden plum. He's the man who is working on the cobless corn, and we may expect next to hear of peach trees growing diamonds and cows giving champagne." We are not so much on golden plums and those other things but we are surely in the market for clouds with silver linings.

MORE FUGITIVES CAPTURED.

Magistrates J. H. Sykes Made Important Arrests on Wilmington Train.

While on his way to Wilmington from Cronly on the Seaboard train due to arrive here at 8:45 o'clock last night, Justice of the Peace J. H. Sykes, of Delgado, made an important capture of Charlie Townsend and "Duck" Jones, two negroes wanted last for breaking out of the guard house at Hamlet, N. C., and before that time for various offences. Jones is wanted for housebreaking at Laurinburg and also for breaking into a private car and rifling the buffet at Hamlet during the past week. The other negro, Townsend, is supposed to be one of the Lumberton jail breakers and is also thought to be implicated in the private car robbery at Hamlet. He had been shot through the hand in one escape from an officer but was easily identified by that.

The negroes boarded the train at Cronly and were soon recognized as fugitives from justice by Capt. W. B. Williams, conductor of the train. The negro Jones was also identified by Mr. Covington, of Laurinburg, a passenger on the train. From Leland, Capt. Williams had Dr. Moore to telephone to Wilmington for officers to meet the train and as soon as the New Hanover line was passed, Mr. Sykes summoned a number of the passengers and the negroes were arrested. A pair of brass knucks and a knife were found on the person of Townsend. The negroes are locked up at the station house here pending the arrival of officers.

PLAYED STANDSTILL

Fort Caswell and Wilmington Tied at End of Tenth Inning Yesterday

THE GAME AT HILTON PARK

Score 10 to 10 and Forfeit Declared in Favor of Locals by One of Two Umpires—Results Yesterday in City Junior League.

In a game, featured principally by senseless wrangling and vigorous "rooting" by some two or three hundred persons who came out in a drizzle of rain to witness the spectacle, Fort Caswell and the Atlantic Coast Line of Wilmington played to a standstill in ten innings of rather indifferent ball on the Hilton diamond yesterday afternoon. At the end of the tenth inning the score stood 10 to 10 and the Caswell team, which had just rallied and tied the score, quit the field, declaring it too dark to play another inning. Capt. Walter McIntyre, of the Wilmington team, contended that there was plenty of time and had the infield umpire, Mr. Ed. Smith, to call the game 9 to 0 in favor of Wilmington by forfeit. Sergeant Wiley, of the Fort, who was umpiring the bases, said it was for the infield umpire to judge of the darkness and he refused to make a decision. However, all bets were declared off and the grand stand and bleachers were bitterly disappointed that the game could not be continued to a definite conclusion one way or the other.

The locals had the game all to themselves up to the last few innings, the score standing 10 to 5 in their favor for the longest kind of time. Then the soldier boys took a tumble to themselves and in the ninth they tied the score. The tenth was without result as before stated and Caswell left the field, led by Capt. Grimes, who said he would play no longer whatever the consequences. Capt. Grimes pitched the game for his team and it is surmised that he was a little "sore" over the support his boys game him in the early part of the game. At any rate, he was not as graceful as he might have been. He pitched a good game, though, and hit well, bringing in several of the runs to the credit of his team.

Smith, for the locals, pitched a splendid game and fielded his position well. Rob. Calder hit like a fiend, lining out a three-bagger the first time he toed the plate and securing four hits out of five times up. Louis Moore did his usual faithful and conscientious work at the receiving end and shared very well in the hitting. But here is the story in detail:

First Inning—Calder hit triple to left; McIntyre and Moore fanned; Green out to pitch. One hit, no runs.

Gross got four bad ones and stole second; Sublett flew to third; Grimes out on good stop by Calder. Cross stole home on passed ball. Mitchell struck out. One run, no hits.

Second Inning—Morse struck out; Tedder out to pitch; Dailey, third to first. No runs, no hits.

Starbird got a pass and stole second; Worden flew to right; Daniels out, pitch to first; Meyers out, second to first. No runs, no hits.

Third Inning—Smith ran out an infield; Schulken got first on a fumble by short; Calder bunted and Smith scored; McIntrye bunted and Schulken scored; Moore was thrown out at home; Green hit to second and on wild throw home, Moore scored; Morse bunted and McIntyre scored; Tedder fouled out; Dailey hit to second and Green scored; Smith hit to second and Morse scored; Schulken fanned. Six runs, no hits.

Macomber fanned; Cross hit through pitcher and went to third on wild throw to second; Sublett hit to centre and Cross scored; Capt. Grimes lined out a double; Mitchell flew out to right and the two runners were caught. One run, two hits.

Fourth Inning—Calder hit over second; McIntyre up and Calder got third on wild throw to second; McIntyre fanned; Moore hit to short and safe on error while Calder scored; Moore thrown out at home; Green stole second and Morse out, catcher to first. One run, one hit.

Starbird flew to second; Worden out, second to first; Daniels safe on error of short and stole second; Meyers out from infield. No hits, no runs.

Fifth Inning—Tedder fanned; Dailey fouled out to catcher; Smith fanned.

Macomber fanned; Cross ran out infield hit; Sublett out, short to first; Cross scoring on wild throw to third; Grimes safe on error of short and stole second; Mitchell hit over second and Grimes scored; Starbird fanned after Mitchell stole second. Two runs, one hit.

Sixth Inning—Schulken safe on infield hit; Calder hit to centre for two bases, Schulken scoring; McIntrye hit through short, scoring Calder; McIntyre stole second; Moore flew out on brilliant catch by Mitchell in deep centre; McIntyre caught off second; Green out, third to first. Two runs, one hit.

Worden out, second to first; Daniels flew to centre; Myers out, pitcher to first. No runs, no hits.

Seventh Inning—Morse, Tedder and Dailey out, short to first, fly to short and to second, respectively. No runs, no hits.

Macomber passed and stole second; Cross out, second to first; Sublett flew to right and Macomber thrown out at plate. No hits, no runs.

Eighth Inning—Smith out, short to first; Schulken flew to third; Calder hit over short and stole second; McIntyre got first on muff of third; Moore flew to third. No runs, one hit.

Grimes hit past third; Mitchell safe on pitcher's error; Starbird hit to pitcher and Grimes forced at third; Mitchell safe on third; Worden hit to left for two bases, Starbird and Mitchell scoring; Myers hit to short and Worden scored; Macomber hit to right, scoring Daniels; Cross hit to pitch and Myers thrown out at home; Sublett thrown out at first. Four runs, four hits.

Ninth Inning—Tedder out, short to first; Dailey out, second to first; Smith hit through second; Schulken flew to first. No runs, one hit.

Grimes hit to centre and stole second; Mitchell ran out a slow one to second; Starbird fouled to catch; Worden safe on error to second, while Grimes scored; Daniels flew to third. One run, one hit.

Tenth Inning—Calder hit to left and stole second; McIntyre called out for stepping out of the box; Moore flew to second; Green hit to right and Calder scored, Green going to second on throw home. Morse fanned. One run, two hits.

Myers flew to second; Macomber drew a pass; Cross hit to left and Macomber scored; Sublett out, second to first; Grimes out, short to first.

Thereby hangs the tale. Had Caswell remained on the field, the result would have been doubtful. "Red" Wilson appeared on the line during the tenth and would doubtless have been put on the slab by the locals had the game continued. The line up of the teams was practically the same as given in Saturday morning's paper.

The Hornets also won both games from the C. S. S. team, the scores having been 7 to 3 and 4 to 3. For the Hornets Banck and Hall and Bornemann and Hall composed the batteries and Irving and West for the C. S. S. nine.

EFFECT OF QUARANTINE.

Regulations Are Being Enforced—More Senseless Rumors Afloat.

The quarantine established Friday by the city of Wilmington against the yellow fever infected district is working well already according to Capt. Robert Green, the chief quarantine officer, who was asked last night for developments. The guards are boarding every train, Capt. Green says, and every passenger is required to show a clean bill of health before he or she is permitted to continue this way. Capt. Green is receiving daily reports from the guards and thus far they have encountered no trouble. He says he has reason to believe the men are doing their full duty on the trains and the quarantinee is as strict as is possible to make it. The railroad people generally are co-operating with the officers and their duties so far, while strenuous, have not been onorous. Capt. John Holmes, an experienced railroad man, has been secured to have charge of the Hamlet station permanently.

The work of cleaning up the city is progressing as rapidly as possible. Three extra health officers have been put on and an additional number of carts have been employed.

In spite of vigorous denials by those in position to know, there were other alarming reports afloat yesterday about the presence of fever here. Of course, the idea is ridiculous but in some quarters the rumors were given credence. There should be a law to silence these false reporters and doubtless they will be silenced if they can be caught.

ANOTHER YACHT RACE.

Regatta Committee of Carolina Club Name Another Date.

The Regatta Committee, of the Carolina Yacht Club, in order to foster the enthusiasm now prevailing among the fleet owners and their friends, have decided upon another race to take place during the week of Aug. 10th, the exact date dependent upon the tide and to be announced to the captains later. The probabilities are, however, that the regatta will be sailed on the Friday or Saturday of the week named. The "Don Julian," Capt. W. L. Parsley, which did not make her appearance in the annual fourth of July race, is expected to appear in the event next week and will dispute the championship of the "Puzzle," which has carried the honors of the club at her masthead since her advent to the course. Capt. McMillan, of the queer craft "Buttinsky" will also be in the race and altogether some surprises are said to be in store for the devotees of the great sport.

The Regatta Committee stands ready to call a race at any time the captains may designate and hope to make the present season the greatest in the history of yachting at Wrightsville.

Two Excursions Yesterday.

The two excursions from Conway, S. C., and Elrod, N. C., yesterday brought in about 1,000 visitors, largely colored people. Seven hundred came in on the Conway train and about 300 on the Elrod train. Both trains were via the W., C. & A. railroad.

GAME LAW HEARING

Interesting Hearing Before Justices Harriss and Westbrook at Wrightsville Yesterday

DEFENDANTS WERE GUILTY

Eleven Prominent Gunners Who Slayed Field Martins By Thousands and Fell Into Hands of Game Warden—Joke on Justice.

Before Justices of the Peace George Harriss and Giles Westbrook, in the pavilion in front of the Ocean View Hotel, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, eleven defendants were arraigned on the charge of violation of the State game laws by the wholesale shooting of field martins, which had literally taken possession of the fine grove in front of Capt. Jno. H. Hanby's hotel and cottage property on Wrightsville Sound. The particulars of the shooting of the birds are remembered by readers of this paper, the indictment against the defendants having been made about the middle of last week by District Game Warden E. H. Freeman, of this city. It was estimated that more than 25,000 of the birds had been killed in four days, Capt. Hanby having given carte blanch to the gunners of the neighborhood to come and help him rid the grove of the plague, which he likened unto that of the locusts and frogs in scriptural times.

The defendants named in the warrants were Capt. Hanby, Dr. J. H. Durham, Messrs. C. D. Foard, Wm. Moore, Chas. Rogers, J. F. Mason, Ed. Craft, Walter Stokley, Ed. Burriss, Tom Piver, Willie Grant and Dr. Ed. Barnes, of Tarboro, the latter being a resident of the sound for the Summer only. The indictment of the gunners created something of a sensation among local sportsmen, though none of them hardly took the matter seriously.

The trial attracted a large crowd not only from the Sound but from the city. Justice Harriss read the warrants and swore the witnesses W. A. Wright, Jr., Jim Dray and one or two others. Game Warden Freeman was present but was not sworn, a copy of the Audubon Society law having been furnished the justices.

None of the defendants was represented by counsel and all of them pleaded guilty. Game Warden Freeman made a statement, defending the purposes of the Audubon Society and its work but saying, at the same time, there were extenuating circumstances in the case in hand. The birds had doubtless not only been a nuisance on the hotel premises but had been a destructive agency as he was informed by Capt. Hanby that they had collected in the grove in such unusually large numbers as to break the limbs and branches from the trees, destroying the beauty of the foliage and impairing the growth of the grove. He realized the defendants meant no wanton or defiant violation of the law and believed Capt. Hanby was driven by necessity to exterminate the pests. He asked the clemency of the court for the defendants.

Justice Harriss announced that the court would impose a fine of $5 and costs upon each of the defendants, but later, at the suggestion of Mr. Freeman, the fine was remitted. The costs were paid and the defendants went their way rejoicing.

Some of the defendants upon intimate terms with him earlier in the day swore out a warrant for Mr. Harriss, the trial justice, charging him with the same violation he had tried the others for, the plan being to arrest him just as the first trial was over. The warrant was taken out in Justice Furlong's court, in this city, but Mr. Harriss "got onto" to the game and conscious of his guilt, had gone the day before and submitted to Justice Giles Westbrook, paying the cost for his offence. Thus he foiled the plan of the original eleven tried and laughed heartily when he pulled a certificate upon the crowd, showing that he had already been tried, convicted and paid his cost.

Frank McLean, now of the Maxton Graded Schools, was appointed instructor in English and Professor N. W. Walker, of the Asheboro Graded Schools, professor of School Organization. The resignation of Dr. Richard H. Whitehead as professor of Anatomy and Pathology, was accepted.

Before The Inspectors.

Government Steamboat Inspectors Rice and Borden at the Custom House yesterday investigated charges against Marine Engineer W. H. Ward for insubordination, exceding authority of license and being under the influence of liquor. Capt. Ward was represented by A. J. Marshall, Esq. After investigation Capt. Ward made a thorough explanation of the circumstances which led to the charges. All the evidence was taken by Miss Irene Pettway, expert stenographer, and the inspectors took type written copies of the same for review and decision later.

CHASE AFTER SNEAK THIEF.

Mr. G. W. Britt Landed Andrew Hawkins Early Last Night.

Mr. G. W. Britt who lives at 617 Chesnut street, had an exciting, but very successful chase after a negro sneak thief whom he caught in the act of entering his residence early last night. Mr. Britt was engaged in making out some rent slips and was in the act of returning some papers to an iron safe when he was attracted by a noise in the passage way of the house, which was dark. Turning quickly around he found a negro crawling in the door on all-fours, apparently in an effort to get up-stairs to secrete himself. Mr. Britt made a dash for the negro and ran him about a block, finally capturing him.

Mr. George Sloan was passing the house about the time of the affair and the negro was turned over to him to hold while Mr. Britt phoned for the police. The negro broke away from Sloan, but Mr. Britt again captured him up a carriage driveway on Seventh between Chesnut and Princess streets. When the patrol wagon came, the negro gave his name as Andrew Hawkins. He was locked up for trial by the Mayor Monday.

Alderman J. A. Karr, of the Streets and Wharves Committee, yesterday met a number of machine shop contractors at the city rock quarry, prospective bidders for placing the machinery there in condition to begin work again. Mr. Karr says much of the machinery is in very bad condition, but that the committee hopes to have everything running now very soon.

TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL.

Surgeon General Recommends Outdoor Treatment at Port Royal.

Washington, August 5.—The recommendation for the establishment of a tuberculosis outdoor hospital and detention camp for the navy at Port Royal, S. C., will be renewed by Surgeon General Rixey of the navy. It is the opinion of the Surgeon General that a farm or hospital camp in connection with a station at Port Royal could be self-sustaining. The medical authorities of the navy are desirous or remodeling some of the old hospitals, and among other things they hope to be able to secure accommodations at the Norfolk hospital so that 250 patients may be cared for and have the building arranged in such a manner that the facilities there for caring for the navy's sick and wounded, may be increased to 500.

The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday Morning, Aug. 5.

VARIOUS WAYS OF ROBBERY

Do you read the daily cotton speculation story about doings on the New York Cotton Exchange? Do you read the daily wheat speculation story sent out every day about the bulls and bears in the grain pit at Chicago? If you do not, you miss a great deal of information and amusement—that is if you don't get it into your head to buy or sell futures.

These speculation stories are published in the commercial columns of The Star, and the observant reader will be struck at the resourcefulness of the bulls and the bears in originating, inventing or discovering something that will put up or down the price of cotton or the price of wheat. It is wonderful how the business keeps up.

Mind you, some of the crop rumors are not based on the slightest foundation of fact whatsoever and many of them are lies out of the whole cloth—lies sprung on the exchanges to make the price of products go up or go down, as it is to the interest of the people responsible for the causes which affect the market.

A few days ago the Star's Chicago wheat story mentioned that the grain pit was thrown into excitement by reports of "black rust" in the great wheat producing region of the West. Of course this sent up the price of wheat and people who were on the wrong side of the market lost their millions of dollars in the aggregate. Just such a canard robbed them of their money, for it turns out that it was just a "sharp trick" of the bulls to boost prices.

"Black rust" is what the farmers of North Carolina call smut and experts say it is common to find it in most any wheat area but never in sufficient quantity to cover a whole wheat growing country covering thousands of miles. Yet the credulity of the wheat speculators was preyed upon, and it shows what a soft set of guys some of them are. They laugh at the "hayseeds" but certainly the "tender foots" do things that are grotesque to a hard-sensed farmer.

The foot-pad used to pull his gun on you and make you deliver up your spare change. The speculator has thrown away the gun and tells a lie that scares you into losing all the money you had on wheat. The tricks are laughed at, and this is the way some people make robbery fun. There are various methods of holding a man up, and the foot-pad's is not the worst of them. However, the foot-pad gets very little for his trouble. He is not in it with the robbers who are marked as respectable.

This reminds us to say that President Jordan claims that in one day Associate Statistician Edwin S. Holmes, by juggling the cotton acreage statistics, caused cotton to drop in price which footed up an aggregate loss of $76,000,000 to the producers. By contemplating those figures we can see how heinous was the crime of Holmes.

SIGNIFICANCE OF CAR FAMINES.

In May there was a "car famine," or shortage of refrigerator cars, in the strawberry growing region around Wilmington. In other words there were not enough cars to carry the products of our strawberry growers to the Northern markets.

Now comes a car famine at High Point where there are numerous furniture factories doing such a rushing business that the manufacturers cannot get enough cars to ship their furniture to the different States from which they have orders. The situation at High Point is serious but a dispatch from High Point on Thursday to the Charlotte Observer says:

"The car situation has become brighter. A telegram received this afternoon from Mr. Green at Washington states that the High Point district may look for speedy relief from the car famine; that the Southern Railway has drawn on its foreign connections for the requisite number of furniture cars of the desired length. Agents of two roads were here to-day and said that their companies would be glad to send furniture cars in here to remain until wanted, if Southern would only give the word. Of the nearly 400 cars ready for shipment about 100 are routed over these lines. The Southern has practically admitted that it was wrong and that the cause of the North Carolina Case Workers' Association in behalf of the car famine was a just one. Chairman Fred N. Tate was all smiles to-night and said he believed that within 50 hours a hundred or more cars would be on hand and that by the middle of next week the situation would be greatly relieved. To-night a furniture car or so came in and commencing with Saturday a great influx is expected."

The requirement of several hundred cars for shipment of furniture from High Point, and the necessity for hundreds of cars to transport our berry crop shows that we are doing something in North Carolina. We are doing business at such a clip that we are taxing the capacity of the transportation companies. The Charlotte Observer of yesterday says:

"The High Point furniture manufacturers have the advantage over the truck growers in that their bureaus and chairs will not readily spoil. The purchaser may, however, secure what he needs elsewhere rather than wait until cars can be supplied. It is a most annoying situation now confronting the High Point people."

—Teacher—"I am going to send for your mother, Johnny, and show her what a shocking composition you brought in to-day." Johnny—"Go ahead an' send fer her; I don't care. Me mudder wrote it, any way."—Judge.

—"Miss Sniffle," said the young man earnestly, "I want to ask you something." "Very well," was the maidenly reply. "I want to ask you to be my wife." "Oh, sugar! I thought you were going to ask me to have a plate of ice cream."—Pittsburg Post.

—Mother—Why did you let him kiss you? Edith—Well, he was so nice about it. He asked—" "The idea! Haven't I told you you must learn to say 'No'?" "That's what I did say. He asked me if I'd be very angry if he kissed me."—Philadelphia Ledger.

TWINKLINGS.

—Really the only way that Russia can ever become a sea power is through a friendly alliance with Germany and Sweden, whereby she may get to the high seas.—Macon Telegraph.

—President Roosevelt would pass the summer at Oyster Bay very pleasantly if it were not for the smell of something dead borne on the South wind from Washington.—Atlanta Constitution.

—The good mother sits up nights and waits with infinite patience for the young daughter to some home from the entertainment. Always confident of her safe coming, always just the least apprehensive and always glad when she comes.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—China's population according to recent estimates of imperial officials is 382,000,000. Guess everybody had better agree to the motto "China, and China alone for the Chinese." Imagine what such an empire could do to the balance of us if it were only inoculated with western civilization.—Chattanooga Times.

President Roosevelt has made up his mind that Secretary Wilson is the right man at the head of the Agricultural Department, so Harvie Jordan and the other fellows who are asking for his removal might as well direct their energies in some other direction. The President has his first time to desert a fellow he likes.—Charlotte News.

—A new oil combination, to fight the Standard, of course, is being formed, and proposes to lay a pipe line from the Kansas oil fields to the Gulf of Mexico. The projectors and managers want $7,000,000 to start the scheme, and they propose to raise it among people who have money to invest, by an issue of bonds in the sum named. Looks easy, don't it?—Brooklyn Citizen.

—Every right thinking man desires to see the members of the negro race attain the best degree of citizenship that it is possible for them to reach; but that a comparatively small number have as yet started on the higher road to the desired goal is apparent to even the most casual observer. There has never been a time when the attitude of the white race, as a whole, was any more friendly to the negro than it is now, and the time is ripe for steady advancement in Negro civilization.—Raleigh Post.

—The time for reciprocity appears to be ripening. It is nearly four years since a President of the United States declared that "the period of exclusiveness is past." His successor was to have done something in the way of reciprocity, but has supinely surrendered to the stand-patters, who, prior to the last national election, were demanding that the tariff be revised by its friends. The friends of the tariff have taken no steps to revise it and the national prosperity is menaced by the "feet in the trough" contributors to Republican national campaign funds.—Buffalo Times.

—The first practical test of the new electrical service on the Long Island Railroad has proved very successful. This giant scheme, involving an expenditure of $40,000,000, to transform the equipment of the road will be watched with interest by railroad officials everywhere, for it marks an era of progress and change in railroad transportation that has been gradually developing in this country for several years. It has only to be demonstrated that electricity is practiacl and that it can be more economically employed than steam, and the next decade will witness a complete transformation, on Eastern lines at least.—Utica Herald-Dispatch.

AT JACKSON SPRINGS.

Week's Gaieties at That Famous Resort—Some Arrivals.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Jackson Springs, N. C., Aug. 5.—This week has been an exceptionally happy one with us. The weather has been delightful and the presence of so many pleasant and congenial people among us, a number of social events and the many attractions of our famous resort, have all combined to make a week of unusual gaiety.

Saturday evening's dance was one of the most enjoyable of the season, though quite an informal affair. We have dancing every night, but our Saturday evening dances are always a little out of the ordinary owing to the large crowds that come to spend Sunday with us. The dancing pavilion presents a brilliant appearance at night with its many bright lights. The pretty girls in gay Summer dresses keeping perfect time with their partners to the lively "two step" or dreamy waltzes played by Prof. Christiani and his excellent orchestra, and the happy groups seated about the pavilion or on the broad steps outside.

One of the most delightful social events of the season was a "Progressive Card Party" given Tuesday morning at the hotel. There were ten tables of "Whist" and "Flinch" and it was indeed a pretty picture. The large home parlor had been beautifully decorated with palms, potted plants, vines and flowers. The score cards were dainty and appropriate—small Japanese fans. Ices and cakes were served at the end of the games. Prof. Christiani and his assistants played several beautiful selections during the morning which added much to the pleasure of the guests.

Mrs. Jas. O. Litchford, a charming young matron, of Raleigh, won the ladies' whist prize, while Miss Bess Everett, of Rockingham, secured the flinch prize. The men's prize went to Mr. Lawrence Hammmond, of Laurinburn. Miss Grace Sykes, of Red Springs, was consoled with a box of peanut candy, and Mr. D. B. Fletcher, of McColl,S. C., carried off the gentleman's booty.

Tuesday evening an old fashioned "Tacky Party" was given in which young and old took part. Long before the hour appointed the pavilion was filled with eager spectators. The participants met in the parlor of the hotel and formed a grand march to the pavilion.

They entered to the inspiring music of the orchestra, and paraded the floor amid thes houts and laughter of the spectators. A funnier sight could hardly be imagined—figured and costumes of every conceivable description. A regular program was carried out consisting of Marches, "Steal Partners," Virginia Reels, etc. A hut was erected in one corner, where Miss Florrie King, of Wilmington, in a gipsie costume, told fortunes.

It was some time before the judges, Mrs. Jas. O. Litchford, Mrs. Robert Irvin and Miss Bess Everett, could decide on the prize winners, but at last a decision was made, and Prof. Joyce in a most happy and appropriate little speech called out Mrs. A. D. McLean of Rockingham, as an old fashioned lady, and Mr. Walter Curry, the popular young clerk of the hotel, as a "Blushing Bride" to receive the first prize. The second prize was awarded to Mr. Watson and Miss Margaret McArthur, of Fayetteville, as a country couple. Miss Pollock and Mr. A. P. McLean were also called for "Honorable Mention." The six prize winners then paraded around the hall, greeted on every side with enthusiastic applause. This was decidely one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season, and much credit is due to Miss Carrie F. Pollock, of Cheraw, S. C., who had it in charge, for the able manner in which everything was carried on.

Some of our new arrivals are Misses Currie, Candor; C. H. Denny, Reidsville; Miss Carrie F. Pollock, Cheraw, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Cotton, Miss MacBuie, Miss Margaret and Annie McArthur, Fayetteville; Mrs. W. D. Campbell, Hope Mills; Miss Grace Sykes, Red Springs; Miss Florrie King Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The receipts of the Salisbury postoffice continue to grow, proving the city's remarkable business increase. For the month of July, 1904, the receipts were $1,187.90 and for the same month of 1905 the receipts were $1,707.07, an increase of nearly 50 per cent.

—The artist who is making the statue of Worth Bagley, to be placed in the capitol square at Raleigh, will have it ready in six months. The model of the face and bust, as prepared at Raleigh, is entirely satisfactory to the family and the artist is now in New York modeling the full figure.

—The suggestion has been made that the State Fair officials offer two prizes, of $50 each, for the largest family in the State, that is, to the white and colored parents who can exhibit the largest number of their own children. It is said that a Johnston county man has 28 children and so far as known he leads the State.

—The organization of a new enterprise was completed at Asheville on Friday when officers of the Blue Ridge Churn Company were chosen and application made to the Secretary of State for a charter. The capital stock of the concern is $10,000 and the new company will build a factory in Asheville and manufacture churns which the backers and organizers of the company consider superior to any on the market.

—Private Matt V. Burleyson, Company B, of Salisbury, which is one of the companies of the First Regiment now in encampment at Charlotte, met his death Thursday night by falling into a cinder pit near the Southern Railway depot. He was with two friends and upon turning aside to get out of the way of a shifting engine, slipped into the pit and was fatally injured by falling on a steel beam. He was 24 years of age and was not married.

—Raleigh correspondence Charlotte Observer: "President Mills, of the Raleigh & Southport Railway, says his whole energy is now concentrated on getting to Fayetteville as soon as possible. It was thought a few days ago that he would get there by January 1st, but there was a little delay owing to high water on the Cape Fear river and some check in getting material for the steel bridge at Lillington. When the road gets to Fayetteville the people of that rare old town will have a rousing celebration, to which of course Raleigh will go down in a large force."

—Sanford Express: A man here the other day from the Deep River section of this county said that within a radius of six miles of his home are located twenty saw mills. One man, ex-Sheriff Laster, of Randolph county, has a sort of steamboat for hauling lumber from his mills down the river to Carbonton, where it is loaded upon the cars of the Durham & Charlotte Railroad and Shipped to Greensboro and other points. In that section the saw mill men are sawing up not only the short-leaf pine, but the old field pine as well. Any sort of pine that will make a stick of lumber finds ready sale. The timber on some of the land up there sold for more money than the land itself would bring.

—A dispatch from Asheville on Friday says: O. B. Schoenfeld, of New Orleans, who was secured by the managers of the Ono-Frisbee wrestling bout to referee the event, arrived this afternoon shortly before 1 o'clock and is a guest at the Hotel Berkeley. Mr. Schoenfeld is a lover of sports and is interested in to-night's contest. He has resided in New Orleans for the past seven years. This afternoon a number of Asheville sports met Mr. Schoenfeld in the lobby of the hotel and spent several hours gossipping with the referee. Referring to the yellow fever situation Mr. Schoenfeld said that while it was bad he thought that reports were somewhat exaggerated. "It's a tough trip getting out of New Orleans," said he. "The coach in which I traveled was locked when we left New Orleans and there we stayed locked in until Atlanta was reached. They won't even let you out to get something to eat."

—Near Charlotte on Friday afternoon Sam Gray, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gray was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

—New York Evening Post: "The demand for columbite and other tantalum minerals has arisen only during the last year, and it is impossible to predict the extent to which these may be valued," says The Bulletin of the United States Geological Survey. "Monazite, zircon and gadolinite, and columbite or tantalum minerals are all mined for a similar purpose; that is, for use in the manufacture of electric and incandescent lamps. The commercial value of monazite is due to the presence of thorid, which is used in the manufacture of the mantles for the Welsbach and other incandescent gas lights. The sources of supply of monazite in the United States are still the deposits in North Carolina and South Carolina, and the entire production for 1904 was obtained from these States.

—A dispatch from Winston-Salem on Friday says: Mr. John Neil, aged about 21 years, who has charge of the reordering room at the tobacco factory of Brown and Williamson, met with an accident to-day that may prove fatal. Mr. Neil was standing about ten feet from the machine when the leather belt used in operating it broke. A piece of the brass staple, about one and a half inches long, which held the belt together, struck Mr. Bell above the right ear with terrible force, knocking him down. A physician was summoned at once, and the wounded man was removed to the hospital, where an operation was performed. The physicians found that the staple broke the skull and carried several pieces of bone into the brain. They removed five or six pieces of borne, but were unable to find the piece of staple, which inflicted a hole in the side of the head about the size of a bullet. It is feared that it is in the brain. The condition of Mr. Neil is decidedly serious.

I suffered with my back for a long time. When I sat at my desk for a while and attempted to get up I would have to catch hold of the chair for support and straighten myself up gradually. The kidney secretions were dark colored and full of sediment. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers and went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. Since using them my back is strong and I can move about and stand up as straight as ever and the kidney secretions have all cleared up. France's Millionaires.

According to M. Neymarck, the noted French statistician, the number of French citizens possessing estates exceeding £2,000,000 is under thirty, while those possessing estates over £500,000 but under £2,000,000 in value is about a hundred. Between 500 and 600 persons possess fortunes averaging from £200,000 to £400,000. Some 4,000 persons in France possess fortunes of between £100,000 and under £200,000. About 13,000 French citizens are "millionaires" in the French sense of the word—namely, possessing over £40,000 and up to £99,000. Going lower down the scale, it is estimated that 262,000 Frenchmen possess a capital of between £2,000 and £4,000, and 1,548,000 hold between £400 and £1,000 each.—St. James' Gazette.

Perfume Their Dogs.

One of the affectations among fashionable women nowadays is to have some distinctive note about their dress or coiffure or little accessories of wardrobe, even if it be only some special perfume which they endeavor to associate with their note paper, their visiting cards or their carriages as well as their dress. One would fain think this is enough; but, according to the latest advices, some women even perfume their pet dogs, and their aim is to discover some unique perfume and guard its name as a jealous secret.—New York Globe.

Our Beer and Germany's.

Germany having been for so many generations looked upon in every quarter of the globe as the special realm of Gambrinus, the drinkers of beer must be astonished to learn that in 1903 the Teutonic brewers made only 1,787,615,000 gallons of malt beverages, or 188,085,230 less than the quantity produced in the United States. Of course it is not to be forgotten that the population of this republic is much larger than that of the dominions of Kaiser Wilhelm, yet nevertheless it cannot be disputed that those are suggestive figures.—New York Tribune.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; price 50c. **

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Sunday Morning, August 6.

The Russian government has decided on the issuance of another internal loan of the amount of $1000,000,000 of which, however, only $75,000,000 may be issued at first.

At Birmingham, Ala., yesterday a meeting of owners of Southern League Baseball clubs, it was decided to rearrange the schedules for the remainder of the season, made necessary by yellow fevor quarantines.

At Sitaitaz, Manchuria, the Japanese are throwing proclamations into the Russian lines urging the Russians on account of pending peace, not to undertake reconnoissance which would only result in useless loss of life.

At Danville, Va., yesterday Arthur Curry, a colored youth arrested in Norfolk was sent on to the Superior Court at Cunningham, N. C., for attempting to wreck an Atlantic and Danville passenger train. The negro placed a heavy iron bar across the rails. The obstruction was discovered in time to stop the train.

—The New York dry-goods market yesterday was strong and prices were well maintained. Higher cotton prices have placed the producers in an unfavorable position inasmuch as their stock of cheap cotton is reported to be small and it is claimed that they would suffer a loss in marketing their goods at ruling figures and buying raw material to-day. A satisfactory price is being secured, however, on a fair proportion of cotton goods lines.

MURDER AND ROBBERY ON TRAIN

Dare Devil Kills Man, Shoots Woman In Hold Up.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Louisville, August 5.—While a Chicago and Alton excursion train from Bloomington, Ills., to Kansas City, was crossing the Mississippi river to-day, a man on board shot and killed Marion Warner, of Secor, Illinois, shot and wounded a woman, and robbed a third passenger. After a hard fight the man was arrested and placed in jail here. He refused to give his name.

Warner was asleep when the man came through the train asking people if they were armed. He awoke Warner and asked if he had a revolver. Receiving a negative reply, it is said, he immediately shot Warner dead. The passengers were panic-stricken and when the hold-up demanded of a passenger whose name has not been learned that he empty his satchel, emphasizing his order with a flourish of his revolver, the passenger hastily poured out the contents of his satchel and the hold-up took possessoin. The robber then fired at random and one woman was shot through the arm.

A boiler-maker from Jacksonville, Ill., attempted to arrest the man, but was knocked senseless. Other passengers rallied from their fright and the man was overpowered.

Claims were made by several that the hold-up man was drunk and had boasted openly that he would kill somebody.

NARROW ESCAPE OF A TRAIN.

While on Ferryboat Collision Was Avoided for Another Peril.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New York, August 5.—The perils of a shipwreck threatened the Colonial Express, crowded with passengers bound from Boston to Washington today, while the train was being ferried through the East river. The train was aboard the New York, New Haven and Hartford transfer boat Maryland. A collision with barges first threatened the Maryland, whose captain turned his boat sharply in shore. The collision was safely avoide but a swift tide, with the inshore momentum already gained, threw the Maryland, head on against the rocks of Sixty-sixth street. The shock sent one of the cars over the bumpers, and the train appeared for a moment to be sliding off into the water. The passengers rushed out along the narrow decks in panic. Though it was quickly ascertained that the heavy timbered transfer boat was practically uninjured, except for slight disarrangement to her steering gear two of the passengers insisted on being taken ashore, which was done. Tugs pulled the Maryland in about ten minutes, and with little delap she completed the trip, landing the Colonial Express safely in New Jersey.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

Plans to Collect Accurate Information from America and Europe.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, August 5.—Plans on a great scale to collect accurate data concerning municipal ownership in both Europe and America have been made by the Executivce Council of the National Civic Federation. This body has selected a committee, numbering about 75 members and including some of America's best known lawyers, scholars and business men, to meet early this fall and determine upon methods for accomplishing this work. The need for such data is stated to exist in the contradictory and unsatisfactory information not available concerning the operation of public utilities.

The subjects on which the commission will seek information are stated under six heads as: Wages, hours and conditions of labor; collective bargaining; cost and character of service; political conditions, civil service, spoils system, and municipal corruption; financial results and taxation.

CLEARING HOUSE STATEMENT.

Acreage of Financial Transactions for the Week.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, August 5.—The statement of averages of the clearing house banks of this city for the week shows:

Loans, $1,146,163,700; increase, $1,316,300.

Deposits, $1,197,126,300; decrease, $2,618,600.

HISTORY MADE AT OYSTER BAY

President Roosevelt Receives Russian and Japanese Envoys and Suites

IS CORDIAL AND IMPARTIAL

Distinguished Enemies Clasped Hands and Fraternized—Elaborate Luncheon—Impressive Occasion.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., August 5.—History was made to-day in Oyster Bay. Russians and Japanese clasped hands and greeted one another with all outward evidence of cordiality and for the first time since nations began to have relations one with another, an executive of a great power received the envoys of two billigerent countries on a mission of peace. President Roosevelt, on behalf of the United States and its people, extended formal greetings to the representatives of Russia and Japan, introduced the plenipotentiaries to one another and entertained them at an elaborate luncheon, at which Russians and Japanese fraternized with one another as comrades rather than as enemies.

During the luncheon President Roosevelt proposed a notable toast, in which he expressed the "Earnest hope and prayer, in the interest not only of these two great powers, but of all civilized mankind, that a just and lasting peace may speedily be concluded between them."

The occasion was impressive. It was attended not by pomp and ceremony, but by a simplicity and frankness characteristic of the President and of the people of America. Due honor was paid the distinguished guests of the President and of the country, and they were received with all the dignity to which their exalted rank entitled them.

The day was ideal. After the sun had burned away the haze of early morning, the weather was glorious. A brisk breeze just tipped the waves of Long Island sound with silver, tempering, at the same time, the heat of the sun's rays.

The handsome war-yacht Mayflower, one of the most beautiful vessels of the United States navy, on which the formal reception of the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries took place, swung easily at anchor just at the entrance of Oyster Bay from Long Island sound. A quarter mile away was the dispatch boat Dolphin, the favorite cruising vessel of several Presidents of the United States. Two miles out the cruiser Galveston was anchored, in waiting to convoy the vessels bearing the envoys to the seat of the Washington Peace Conference at Portsmouth, N. H.

The Mayflower is in command of Commander Cameron McR. Winslow, President Roosevelt's naval aide, who was detailed to this duty as a special mark of distinction to the peace commission by the President.

Before the arrival of the President and the envoys the cabins of the Mayflower were handsomely decorated with flowers. The luncheon table in the main saloon was laden with flowers.

No attempt was made to decorate the cabins of the vessels with flags, care being exercised in every feature of the ceremony attendant upon the reception not in the slightest way to offend the sensibilities of the guests of the occasion.

Every officer of the Mayflower was attired in special full dress uniform; the crew were in sailor men dress of snowy white.

Rear Admiral Charles D. Sigsbee, was aboard the Mayflower as the guest of Commander Winslow. Major General Frederick D. Grant, commander of the Department of the East, and Rear Admiral Joseph B. Coghlan, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, respectively the representatives of the army and the navy at the reception, went aboard the Mayflower at 11:50 A. M.

As President Roosevelt stepped on the gangway to ascend to the deck of the Mayflower, the first gun of the presidential salute of twenty-one guns boomed its welcome and the beautiful Presidential pennant of blue and gold was broken out at the mast head. The President was greeted by Commander Winslow as he reached the deck. The band, after the sounding of four ruffles on the drums, played the "Star Spangled Banner." One after another, the President personally greeted and shook hands with the officers of the ship.

Meantime the cruiser Tacoma, with the Japanese envoys and their suite on board, had arrived from New York, making the run in two hours and three quarters. The ship came to anchor at 12:30 o'clock about half a mile from the Mayflower. Almost at the same time, the naval yacht Sylph, with Third Assistant Secretary of State Herbert H. D. Pierce on board, also came to anchor a short distance from the Mayflower. Mr. Pierce, who, in the absence of Secretary Root, was to represent the Department of State at the ceremonies incident to the reception, boarded the Mayflower from a launch about ten minutes after the arrival of the President.

As the Japanese mission, headed by Baron Komura and Minister Takahira, ascended the gangway of the Mayflower, all attired in black frock coats and shiny silk hats, the band sounded three ruffles and then played a march. At the head of the gangway Commander Winslow received the envoys and as they stepped to the deck they were greeted by Mr. Pierce. They were escorted immediately to the cabin where the President was awaiting them.

The reception was brief and was as devoid of formality as the nature of the occasion would permit. Baron Komura and Minister Takahira shook hands with the President, the cordiality of the greeting being unmistakable. As the report of his Emperor, Baron Komura, then extended his thanks to President Roosevelt and through him to the American people for the interest they had manifested in the pending peace negotiations, expressing particularly his gratitude to the President for the friendliness he had shown in initiating the negotiations which had resulted in the pleasure they were to have to-day. The President assured Baron Komura that he had found great pleasure in taking the steps toward what he hoped would be a permanent peace between two great nations.

The exchanges, if they so may be termed, were entirely informal. No set addresses were delivered.

Baron Komura then presented to the President the twelve members of his suite and the President in turn introduced the envoys to the army and naval officers present, after which, with Baron Komura and Minister Takahira, he retired to an inner cabin for a brief consultation prior to the arrival of the Russian mission.

The cruiser Chattanooga, with the Russian envoys on board, anchored a third of a mile from the Mayflower at 1:05 P. M., and fifteen minutes later the Chattanooga's 19-gun salute announced the departure of the Russians.

A few minutes afterward the form of M. Witte, Russia's chief plenipotentiary, appeared at the starboard gangway of the Mayflower. He was followed by Baron Rosen, the Russian Assbassador and second peace envoy, and eight members of his suite. They were received precisely as the Japanese had been, and they, too, were ushered into the cabin where the President was inwaiting to receive them.

During the reception of the Russian mission the Japanese envoys and the members of their suite were in one of the forward cabins.

With notable cordiality President Roosevelt shook hands with Mr. Witte and Rabon Rosen, exchanging with them informal, but hearty personal felicitations. After receiving the members of the suite and presenting all in turn to personal guests, the President then brought the two sets of envoys together, introducing them formally to one another.

It was a notable scene as the diminitive Baron Komura shook hands with the Giant Witte at the instance of the President of the United States.

The greetings of the members of the two special missions were distinctly formal, but not the slightest suggestion of enmity was shown on either side. Neither by word nor by action did they indicate, even by indirection, anything but the utmost cordiality.

Careful to avoid any strain, President Roosevelt, as soon as possible after the introductions suggested that the party proceed to the main saloon where luncheon was in waiting. The President himself led the party, followed in order by Mr. Witte, Baron Komura, Ambassador Rosen and Minister Takahira. Even the formation of this little procession involved a delicate diplomatic problem, but it was agreed that the President solved it admirably.

Although the luncheon was served with the other guests standing, the President escorted the four envoys to chairs in one corner of the saloon and in half a minute through tact and delicacy, the whole party was engaged in animated conversation over their dishes. The conversation was generally in French as Mr. Witte speaks very little English. Baron Rosen and Baron Komura chatted as if they had been life-long friends, and Minister Takahira at no time particularly communicative, entered into the conversation with zest and interest.

Before the luncheon had proceeded far, President Roosevelt arose from his chair and turning to the assemblage raised his hand for silence. In an instant there was a hush. Bowing to the envoys, President Roosevelt said:

"Gentlemen: I propose a toast to which there will be no answer and to which I have the honor to ask you to drink in silence, standing. I drink to the welfare and prosperity of the sovereigns and the people of the two great nations whose representatives have met one another on this ship. It is my most earnest hope and prayer, in the interest of not only these two great powers, but to all civilized mankind, that a just and lasting peace may speedily be concluded between them."

The toast was drunk as the President requested, in profound silence; but in the hum of conversation which followed little was heard, but enthusiastic comment upon the character of the President's expression. Mr. Witte and Baron Komura both cordially thanked him.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, after the President had posed with the four envoys for an official photograph, arrangements were made for the President's departure for Sagamore Hill. He took cordial leave of the envoys and their suites, shook hands with his personal guests on board and to the music of the band, and to the roar of the Mayflower's guns, went over the side and entered his launch. His flag was hauled down and a few minutes later, at 2:55 he was landed at the J. West Roosevelt pier. There he entered his carriage and was driven to his home.

The Japanese envoys and their suites were next to leave. They shook hands with the Russian plenipotentiaries, expressing to them their personal gratification at the pleasant meeting they had held. As they went over the side the Mayflower saluted them with 19 guns and as they went aboard the Dolphin the red sun flag of Japan was broken out at the peak of that vessel, and at the same moment the Russian flag was raised over the Mayflower.

Shortly after 3 o'clock Assistant Secretary Pierce took his departure from the Mayflower going aboard the Galveston, which is the convoy of the Mayflower and Dolphin to Portsmouth.

At 5 o'clock the little squadron got under way and steamed down Long Island sound, the Galveston in the lead followed closely by the Dolphin and the Mayflower.

The vessels are expected to arrive at Portsmouth on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, the trip proposed being made in slow time in order to avoid any inconvenience to the plenipotentiaries.

Prayer for the Peace Conference.

Cooperstown, N. Y., August 5.—In view of the approaching session of the peace commissions from Russia and Japan at Portsmouth, N. H., a form of Prayer for use in the Episcopal churches of the Diocese of New York has been set forth by Bishop Potter in an official notice. The prayer follows:

"Almight God, Whose is the spirit of unity and concord and Who makes the men to be of one mind in an house, be, we beseech Thee, with Thy servants who shall soon assemble on these shores to seek for a basis of peace. Overrule their deliberations with Thy Heavenly wisdom; fill them with the spirit of brotnerhood and so hasten the day when all men shall beat their swords into plow shears and their spears into pruning hooks; when Thy children shall be taught of the Lord and when great shall be the peace of Thy children. All of which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen."

YELLOW FEVER IS SPREADING

There Are Now Ninety-One Infected Localities in New Orleans

TOTAL CASES TO DATE 505

Thirty New Cases Reported Yesterday and Eighth Deaths—Archbish Chappelle a Victim—Shreveport Bottled Up.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New Orleans, August 5.—The fever report up to 6 P. M., is as follows:

New cases, 30.
Total cases to date, 505.
Deaths, 8.
Total deaths, 97.
New sub focie, 15
Total sub foci, 91.

The smaller number of new cases is counterbalanced by the number of new foci which equals half of the total cases reported for the day, showing that the original point of infection is no longer the main center. Of the deaths, five were in the emergency hospital and three in the original district.

One of the today's victims is Archbishop Chapelle, whose case was reported by Dr. Larue, his family physician. He was stricken yesterday morning but the diagnosis was not confirmed until tonight. Dr. Larue is unable to trace the infection as the archbishop has not ben out of his residence but once in a week or more when he took a short carriage ride accompanied by his niece. He has not been in the infected district, though there are cases of fever not far from his residence. Dr. Larue believes that a stray mosquito from an infected house is the cause of the archbishop's illness. At 10.30 o'clock tonight Dr. Larue, who is attending Archbishop Chapelle gave out the following statement:

"I saw the archbishop Friday night at 9 o'clock and found that he had a well defined case of yellow fever. I saw him tonight at 9:30 o'clock and while he is quite sick his condition is not at all alarming. The archbishop has just completed a tour of all the parishes where he has comfirmed classes."

Monsignor Chapelle recently returned from Havana, being the apostolic delegate to that island and in practical charge of all the affairs of the Roman Catholic church there.

The marine hospital service has not yet taken control of the situation here. Dr. White received advices at midnight last night indicating that he would be placed in charge, in accordance with the message of the President to General Wyman but so far as known here the definite orders have not been received. Dr. White went to Gulfport and Fointainebleu today to meet Dr. Wasdin, of the marine hospital service, who is in charge of the Mississippi quarantine, and Governor Vardaman who went down from Jackson, but did not return here tonight, as was expected.

Situations Serious.

Though there was an increase today over yesterday in the number of fatalities, the fact that the whole yellow fever situation is to pass immediately to the control of the Federal governmetn has had such encouraging effect locally that it is felt on all sides that there has been a distinct improvement over conditions during the past few days.

The city will continue to exercise its police authority in co-operation with the Federal surgeons; the municipal authorities and the citizens' committees are to carry on the campaign of cleaning up, the two health boards are to perform many of their functions in conjunction with the marine hospital service, and New Orleans expects still to be called upon to furnish funds to carry on the fight. The actual handling of the fever situation itself is to pass to the direction of the government which is expected to send a large number of yellow fever experts to work under the supervision of Dr. White, rigid rules are to be made and efficiently carried out in connection with the scientific treatment of cases. The Federal officers make no attempt to conceal the fact that the situation is serious but they say it is not without hope and that success is possible in spite of the headway the fever has gained, particularly in the foreign neighborhoods below Canal street.

The fact that the infection in the first, fourth, sixth and seventh municipal districts, which lie above Canal street and constitutes modern New Orleans is relatively small leads to the hope that vigilant observation of all cases in that quarter while the more than half of the city free from serious infection. Of the deaths to date only five have occurred above Canal street and of them four were Italians who left the infected neighborhood in the vicinity of the French market, and the fifth was a merchant who did business in that quarter. Of the cases, except those most recently reported, all have recovered or are on the way to recovery.

The trouble on Lake Borogne between Mississippi guards and the Louisiana naval brigade is considered to have ended, so encouraging were the conditions today that Governor Blanchard sent orders to Commander Bostick to withdraw part of his force. In his telegram to Commander Bostick the Governor said:

"If the Mississippi patrol boat Grace be properly in the service of the United States hospital bureau you cannot seize her. Am not fighting the Federal government. Am expecting advices from Dr. Wasdin and Secretary Shaw."

Dr. Wasdin advised today that the Mississippi boats were not exceeding their rights and Secretary Shaw's telegram indicating that the government would have full charge of the quarantine between Louisiana and Mississippi was taken to mean that Louisiana rights would be fully protected by the marine hospital service and the Treasury Department.

The Southern Pacific is still having trouble in handling the United States mail. It has used an engine and a freight car to go through Calcasieu, but finds the method of handling is troublesome and expensive. The decision of Iberia Parish east of Calcasieu to put her bars against everything added to the difficulties of the road.

It was reported today that Dr. Souchon had sent his resignation to Governor Blanchard as president of the State Board of Health. The report gave as the reason his dissatisfaction growing out of the action yesterday in asking the government to take control. At Dr. Souchon's office the report was promptly denied with the statement that the doctor was in full sympathy with what had been done and he stood ready to do all in his power to aid the marine hospital service in its work.

Considerable complaint is being received in the city from people living in the country districts against the arbitrary quarantine rules that have been put into effect. The result of them is that many communities are already beginning to run short on supplies and it is desired that the authorities here shall do what is possible to secure a relaxation.

Burnt Childd Dreds the Fire.

Memphis, August 5.—Memphis has closed her doors to the outside world and no person can enter the city unless holding a certificate personally signed by Dr. Herbert Jones, president of the board of health. These certificates will be given only in urgent cases and when it is postively known that the applicant has not ben in or near a fever infected district. The city is practically bottled up tonight. This drastic action was taken by the mayor and city council tonight, at a special meeting, called by a petition of prominent business men and professional men.

Charleston's Strict Quaratine.

Charlestnn, S. C., Aug. 5.—Mayor Rhett's proclamation issued this afternoon declares that no passenger shall enter the city on any railroad or boat with a health certificate or satisfactory proof of not having been in infected territory within ten days. Freight cars will be allowed to come in from districts quarantined against, only with certificate of fumigation.

Federal Control.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., August 5.—In response to President Roosevelt direction that he be furnished with a report on the yellow fever situation in Louisiana, particularly in New Orleans Surgeon General Wyman, of the marine hospital service, in Washington tonight telegraphed the President that he was making arangements to undertake government control of the fever situation as requested by Governor Blanchard. Dr. Wyman's telegram which the President directed to be made public is as follows:

"Washington, D. C., August 5, 1905.

"The President:

"Replying further to your telegram of Fourth, submit the following report.

"Service has had skilled officers in New Orleans since first knowledge of the fever. Under the law they are there to see that the Treasury interstate quarantine regulations are enforced and under same law to offer assistance in their enforcement. Detention camps have been established and are in operation to permit exit of people without endangering other States, and train inspectors are placed by the service on all trains leaving New Orleans. Our skilled officers in New Orleans have been and are materially aiding the local authorities in the suppression of the disease. Before formally assuming charge in accordance with request, I have deemed it necessary to have an understanding as to expenses. Surgeon White in his telegram today estimates the same at $1,500 to $2,000 per day. The epidemic fund will not stand this expenditure. I have wired Surgeon White arrangement desired is that government should maintain and pay for medical executive control but that the expenses for material and labor of cleaning up the city should be borne by the city itself. This has been the rule heretofore. I am proceeding on these lines. Will report further.

(Signed)

"WALTER WYMAN, Surgeon General."

President Roosevelt is concerned deeply by the spread of the fever in New Orleans and it is his hope and expectation that everything possibly will be done to stamp out the epidemic.

Savannah Prohibits Excursions.

Savannah, August 5.—Dr. W. F. Brunner, health officer of Savannah, who returned last night from New Orleans, today issued an order declaring quarantine off in Savannah against all points except New Orleans. He has also issued an roder stopping all excursions either into or out of Savannah.

Shreveport Bottled Up.

Shreveport, La., Aug. 5.—Shreveport is effectually bottled up. Notice was received tonight at the local office of the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific railroad, the only road remaining open, that the two remaining trains on that line had been cancelled from tonight. This leaves the city without either passenger or freight communication with the outside world. No mail is being received and none sent out.

Beaufort Quarantines.

Charleston, Aug. 5.—Beaufort, S. C., has declared strict quarantine against New Orleans and all infected districts. Certificates showing that persons have not been in an infected district in ten days will be required for entering that city. Vessels will be stopped at Port Royal and St. Helena for inspection.

HORIBLE CRIME IN JERSEY.

Girl of 20 Taken from Escort, Maltreated and Murdered.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, August 5.—Loretta A. Pfeffer, a girl of 20 was found alone and dying early this morning on the front steps of the residence of the Chief of Police Sullivan, at North Bergen, N. J. She was taken into the house and died before medical aid could be given.

The police are searching for two men who, pretending to be policemen, took the girl away from a young man who was her escort last night and who are believed to have treated her brutally. The young man said that while returning from a picnic at Little Coney Island, a New Jersey resort, he was stopped by two pretended policemen who demanded $5 from him and who on finding that he did not have that amount, sent him away to get it, keeping the girl as a hostage and promising to release her when the money had been paid. The men disappeared with the girl before he returned.

Manager Ransick and Wilson, of the Danville and Greensboro teams of the Virginia-North Carolina League, engaged in a fight during the progress of the game at Greensboro yesterday afternoon. Wilson struck Ransick in the face and kicked him. The fight grew out of a remark by Ransick regarding a play. Manager Ransick his signed Gillard, Greensboro's star pitcher for the Danville team of the Virginia-North Carolina League.
